Road Kill

By D.S. Milne

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .They pulled up in front of Harry's place on Grand Isle and unloaded their gear and food. It was a weather-beaten building devoid of paint. You know, Harry, this is exactly what I needed! I was beginning to go bonkers hanging around the house alone, talking to the walls . getting no answers. I know the feeling. It took me awhile to adjust to being alone also after twenty-five years of being married to the same woman. When someone dies you don't lose them all at once . you lose them bit by bit . in small pieces. Jack Collins couldn't be shaken out of his unchanging destiny nor the strange dreams accompanying him. He acquires a provocative insight into the death of his wife from cancer -- he comes to grips with death. He was seeing life in the extremes of human experience. It wasn't easy to live alone after the passing of a loved one. Back east he was a veritable bigot, however, he mellows and becomes almost westernized the farther his...
