Reviews

This publication will be worth purchasing. It really is written in simple terms instead of difficult to understand. It has been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this ebook in which basically modified me, altered the way I believe.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This biography, derived from Hripsime's memoir, revolves around 1975 Beirut. Trapped in her fourth-floor flat alone, she relives her story as Hripsime's beloved city crumbles around her. Born to Christian Armenian parents in Central Turkey, she loses her entire family very young during the Armenian Deportation of 1915. During WWI, the Ottoman Turks herd over one million and a half or more Armenians into the desert. Most died a grueling death, either slaughtered or of starvation, thirst or diseases. Hripsime, in her teens, is one of only a handful that escapes the massacre of massacres in Marash, Turkey during the French-Turkish War of 1920. Fleeing to Aleppo, Syria, Hripsime marries an Armenian Evangelist raising four children. Again, she and her family survive another war - WWII. Recalling her children and their families; her eldest daughter and physician husband as well as her second son live in America; the youngest son and daughter-in-law, both graduates of Harvard, live in Tehran, Iran in 1975 where they both teach at the University in Tehran. Her eldest son, wife and two children were living in West Beirut but were able to escape. Because there's no electricity or phones for weeks, Hripsime does not know they have reached safety until she talks to her niece on a day when the phone actually rings. Her niece wants Hripsime to escape with her and husband by boat to Cyprus, but first they survive the bullets and the streets filled with debris, some impassable. Hripsime tells of her beloved Evangelist husband, Mihran whose amazing faith is far reaching. Passing eight years before 1975, Hripsime endures many weeks of horrible...
