

Cameron Kale: The Evangel of Mariah City

By David Whitaker

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Cameron learned in church and from the Bible that demons were real. Since Cameron was an upstanding professional in the community, he could not tell anyone that he had nightmares about an outer-worldly being, Ser Pentino, whose name was Drawg. Cameron believed that this being was not just a figment of his imagination but the same person the Bible described as Satan. Cameron Kale, the Evangel of Mariah City is the story of a typical family with untypical occurrences. The Kales, a practicing Christian family, experience day-in-and-day-out the reality of spiritual warfare. Beyond his daily earthly routine, Cameron faces outer-worldly happenings as he encounters the spirit villain, Ser Pentino, who is none other than Drawg, a grotesque demon spirit from hell. While God has called Cameron to share the gospel in Mariah City, he finds that it has not been his daily focus. He, like so many other Christians in Mariah City, settles for things of lesser value in the kingdom than sharing the evangel, which Drawg brings to light. Cameron learns hard lessons about the...
