

Will the Real Me Please Stand Up

By Christopher Knopf

BEARMANOR MEDIA, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Christopher Knopf is a consistently superb writer with his body of work a treasury of accomplishment any writer would envy. Here are the personal experiences that formed his keen insight on life and the nimble mind that led him to the Presidency of the Writers Guild of America, West. He speaks with complete honesty of the many people he has worked with and worked for in a vacillating, perilous profession. It makes a helluva read. - John Gay, Oscar nominated Screenwriter, Separate Tables Over his 50 year career writing for movies and television, Chris Knopf worked with many of Hollywood's great stars, producers and directors. He is a wonderful story teller and has filled this book with tricks of the trade, inspiring anecdotes, and one entertaining story after another. It's a must read for any aspiring screenwriter. - Tom Schulman, Oscar Winning Screenwriter, Dead Poets Society All television writers know who wrote the book on writing Movies and Miniseries for Television -- it was Chris Knopf, and now he's written the warm and...
