

The Portrait: Unspoken Thoughts

By Daniel Adebawale Bello

TamaRe House Publishers, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Portrait Unspoken Thoughts The poetry of Daniel Dante Bello is a revelation: brave, honest, angry, intimate and full of passion. These poems burn with clarity and born of experiences with my growth in life, vivid and tactile as I transcend from the later into the new me. Dante. These poems are collections of journeys, moments and transition from boyhood into manhood hence I insist on the unique elements of humanity and my identity in the same breath, as I grow up daily to full maturity in all spheres of life declaring my own truth, legacies, beliefs and identity in alignment to the beautiful soul I have become. The portrait I paint is not only complete, but painfully accurate, powerful, bold, unapologetic and poetic. The portrait is a continuation of Colours of My Life, my first book of poetry and hence this translates into the new space I am in, in the arena of my poetic space, the poet, the author, the man Dante, the immigrant, the hustler, the lover, the father to be, the husband...
