CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 162 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in. Sold by her family to become a submissive courtesan to a powerful man, Branwyn arrives in a strange new land ruled by the castle of Black Dorn. Horrified by Branwyn's lack of knowledge regarding relations between a man and his woman, her instructor, Duna Trea, begins her daily lesson in the art of bedding a man. Branwyn stepped into a vast room with a wood floor. She looked about. Many tapestries hung on the walls. One displayed heroic soldiers crushing an enemy and another portrayed a mother suckling a child by a stream. Others confused Branwyn. On the floor, mounds of pillows were scattered about and a few chairs. Duna Trea appeared, as if from nowhere. Good morning Dune Branwyn. I trust you slept well and have recovered from your journey. She dropped into a deep curtsy. Oh yes, Duna Trea. I am quite rested. Leah serves you well. Yes, though we struggle with confusions over language and customs. Sit down, Dune Branwyn. Duna Trea pointed to a smaller chair as she settled onto a velvet-cushioned one. She...
