He's now a captain and in charge of a top secret spy operation. A lot of people would like to know about the operation - not just the Soviets but also the Pentagon and a seething J. Edgar Hoover. Cronley knows that if anything goes wrong, he's finished. But he's already caught up in more than one conspiracy . . . Cronley has just uncovered a bizarre alliance between a former German intelligence chief and the Mossad. A German family whom Cronley never knew he had has suddenly and suspiciously emerged. And he has a rendezvous with an undercover agent against the Soviets known only as Seven-K. And when he meets, Seven-K, that's when he gets a real surprise . . . A clean pristine copy.
